Principal's Report Monica Arbow

- School closures and early release protocols are being discussed. Hiteon faired very well with the release and handing the children that had to stay because of daycare closures.
- Meghan will start her leave on the 23rd. Monica will take over for Meghan and we will have Peter Clark joining us as the interim VP.

- Testing season is fast approaching

- The ELPA testing will be giving in February.
- Smarter Balance testing for grades 3-5 will start in April.
- The Opt out form will be available to parents interested with plenty of time for them to meet the submission deadline.
- Early release for next school year is under review.
